

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

Under the Bylaws of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska [Sections 2.9 and 4.1(i)], the respective colleges of the University have jurisdiction over procedural matters concerning academic dishonesty. Just as the task of inculcating values of academic honesty resides with the faculty, the faculty is entrusted with the discretionary authority to decide how incidents of academic dishonesty are to be resolved.

This policy applies to all colleges and academic units at the University of Nebraska at Omaha (“UNO” or “University”). Each college and academic unit, including its faculty members, have the responsibility to educate its students about this policy and any additional standards of conduct for academic integrity in a particular course. Students are responsible for understanding and adhering to the requirements of this policy and any additional academic integrity standards prescribed by a college and academic unit, including its faculty members.
