

CATALOG PURPOSE

The catalog is a comprehensive resource that provides important information for students' academic careers at UNO. The catalog contains official descriptions of academic programs, prerequisites, courses, and degree requirements. In addition, the catalog provides an overview of academic policies and procedures, including admissions, enrollment, grading, and financial information.