

ADMISSION DECISIONS

Admission by Review

Students who do not qualify for Assured Admission (<https://catalog.unomaha.edu/undergraduate/admissions/admission-requirements/>) by meeting all entrance criteria may be considered for Admission By Review (ABR). Each applicant will be reviewed and considered for admission on an individual basis. The student's cumulative high school grade point average, class rank, ACT/SAT scores, and the grades received in the core course requirements are all considered primary factors in the admission evaluation and decision. The student may be asked to provide further documentation.

Enrollment at the university accepts the terms of your admission. Students admitted under ABR may be monitored for academic success. Some students may be admitted with requirements to complete specific courses and/or use academic support to compensate for their deficiencies.

Provisional Admission

Students who are admitted pending the receipt of final admission documents are considered to be Provisionally Admitted to the University.

All offers of admission are provisional if you have high school or collegiate coursework in progress. Final admission is dependent on receipt and review of your final transcripts. Admission offers are subject to cancellation if your final coursework does not meet admission requirements.

Required documents needed to complete your admission can be viewed on MavLINK. All documents must be submitted within the first eight weeks of the first term of enrollment. Failure to do so may result in an enrollment hold blocking further registration.

Applicants with Academic Suspension or Dismissal Record

Students whose academic records reflect they were placed on academic suspension or dismissal during the last calendar year at any college or university are not eligible for admission to UNO. Once the university has received a transcript or other notification indicating suspension or dismissal within the last calendar year, admission to UNO will be canceled, and/or the student will be disenrolled from classes and any tuition paid to date for the semester would be refunded. The student would be eligible to reapply for admission to UNO after one full year from the end of the last term in which the student was suspended.

Deferred Admission

For those students who do not meet the admission requirements, admission will be deferred for future additional academic preparation at another postsecondary institution before being eligible for admission to UNO.

Fraudulent and Incomplete Applications

If any information is given falsely or withheld on the admission application, or if transcripts/documents submitted (in support of an admission application or to obtain residency) are altered or fraudulent, the university reserves the right to revoke admission, including dismissal from the university.
