INTERNATIONAL STUDIES, BACHELOR OF ARTS

A major in International Studies must meet or exceed the requirements for a major as specified by the College of Arts and Sciences. Beyond the core courses and foreign language classes, the curriculum for INST majors is constructed of those courses that have an international focus in disciplines such as history, political science, information technology, geography, sociology, management, marketing, economics, philosophy and religion, English, and related courses in the fine arts and humanities.

INST majors can choose either a general curriculum INST degree or choose a concentration in Global Strategic Studies, Area Studies or International Management and Business Leadership.

Degree Requirements

To obtain a B.A. with a major in International Studies, a student must fulfill university, college, and departmental requirements. Other hour requirements follow:

- 46 hours of University General Education courses
- 12-19 hours college breadth requirement
- 46-49 hours of major courses including the foreign language requirement
- 0-18 hours of electives

TOTAL HOURS: 120

All coursework taken for the International Studies major must be completed with a grade of "C-" or better. There is a minimum of 30 credits of required coursework plus the foreign language requirement which is described in more detail below.

Foreign Language Requirements:

At a minimum, in order to satisfy the INST foreign language requirement, majors who are completing an Area Studies Concentration must complete the equivalent of three years of one university-level foreign language study (completion of a minor is recommended) or two years each of two foreign languages. At least one foreign language studied by those completing an area studies concentration must be associated with the area chosen.

For students who are completing the general curriculum INST major, the Global Strategic Studies Concentration or the International Management and Business Leadership Concentration, the foreign language requirement will be two years of one foreign language for 16 hours (levels I-IV) or one year of foreign language for 10 hours (levels I-II) supplemented with 6 hours (levels III-IV) of the same language, earned from studying abroad.

If a student is a native speaker of another language, formal foreign language study may not be required.

There are options for majors to choose general curriculum or from one of three concentrations:

- Area Studies (p. 1)
- Global Strategic Studies (p. 1)
- International Management and Business Leadership (p. 1)

General Curriculum Option

This option is meant to provide the possibility of majoring in INST but not having to declare a specific concentration. The INST core courses listed above are required then at least 15 hours of 3000-4000 level International Studies coursework that is designed in coordination with the academic advisors must be completed. Students must complete the e-portfolio requirements during their last semester.

Area Studies

This concentration offers the opportunity to focus on one or more areas of regional interest. Examples include Latin America, Europe and the Middle East. Please discuss with an academic advisor the possibility of other areas of concentration, including Africa, Central Asia-South Asia (CASA), and East Asia which will depend on the availability of relevant courses at a given time. In addition to the INST core courses, at least 15 hours of 3000-4000 level coursework in at least 2 departments that focus on the select region must be completed. At a minimum, majors who choose this concentration must complete the equivalent of three years of one university-level foreign language study (completion of a minor is recommended) or two years each of two foreign languages. At least one foreign language studied by those choosing this concentration must be associated with the area chosen. Studying abroad in your area of interest is strongly recommended. Course lists for Area Studies will differ according to the area and availability of courses offered.

Global Strategic Studies

This concentration is designed for individuals interested in careers in government, national security and intelligence, in teaching in secondary and higher education, and in graduate school studies in any of these areas. The foreign language requirement for this concentration will be two years of one foreign language for 16 hours (levels I-IV) or one year of foreign language for 10 hours (levels I-II), supplemented with 6 hours (levels III-IV) of the same language earned from studying abroad.

This roadmap is a suggested plan of study and does not replace meeting with an advisor. Please note that students may need to adjust the actual sequence of courses based on course availability. Please consult an advisor in your major program for further guidance.

This plan is not a contract and curriculum is subject to change.

Additional Information About this Plan:

University Degree Requirements: The minimum number of hours for a UNO undergraduate degree is 120 credit hours. Please review the requirements for your specific program to determine all requirements for the program. In order to graduate on-time (four years for an undergraduate degree), you need to take 30 hours each year.

Placement Exams: For Math, English, or Foreign Language, a placement exam may be required. More information on these exams can be found at https://www.unomaha.edu/enrollment-management/testing-center/ placement-exams/information.php

**Transfer credit or placement exam scores may change suggested plan of study.
